*Glorious is Helumoa, carrying gently
On the soft breeze, swaying with poise
The grove of sheltering coconut trees stands majestically
Like a cluster of royal kāhili at Kuihelani
Distinguished is Helumoa*

*The fragrances of Kawehewehe fill the air
Līpoa mingled with sea spray
There, Princess Pauahi’s dream was realized
To nurture the precious lives of her people
Honored is Helumoa*

*The rustling of the coconut fronds compliments my song
For the festively attractive lands of Helumoa
May the refrain be heard over and over again
Glorious is Helumoa in my opinion*
