

Composed by Harry Lauder
as a tribute to Honolulu
after his visit of March 16, 1914

Andante moderato

I love you, Hon-o-lu-lu, Hon-o-lu-lu, I love you.

You are the Queen of the Sea. Your val-leys and moun-tains, Your palm-trees and foun-tains, For-ev-er and ev-er will be dear to me.
