Key: G-A Tempo: 94 BPM

Here now a chilly cold approaches, 'tis the ice-tingling Kololio,
Spurring thoughts to private reverie, of the sweetheart's lover and husband.

Return, return to the uplands, o bird dwelling in the heights
Be careful, be cautious, a chilly cold approaches.

My lover of the still night, good evening, my dear,
My companion embraced in the heights of the calm lonely plain.
