 Uluwehiwehi 'oe i ka'u 'ike lā
 Bb D7 G7
 E ka Royal Hawaiian Hotel

You are glorious in my sight
Oh, Royal Hawaiian Hotel

hui

 A he nani lā, ke hulali nei
 G7 C7 F
 A he nani maoli nō G7 C7 F C7

chorus:
 Lovely, sparkling there
 Truly a thing of beauty

1 7
 Ka moena weleweka moe kāua lā
 Bb D7 G7
 He pakika he pahe'e maika'i nei

The beds are velvet, let us lie down
So smooth and slippery

1 7
 Ka paia māpala 'ōma'oma'o lā
 Bb D7 G7
 He pipi'o mau ē ke ānuenuē

The walls are green marble
The rainbow arches above

1 7
 'O ka hone a ke kai i ka pu'u one lā
 Bb D7 G7
 Me ke 'ala lipoa e moani nei

The sea murmurs on the sand dunes
And the scent of lipoa is carried in 1 7

 'O ka holu nape a ka lau o ka niu lā
 Bb D7 G7
 I ke kulukulu aumoe

The coconut fronds rustle
In the late night hours

1 7
 E ō e ka Royal Hawaiian Hotel
 Bb D7 G7
 Kou inoa hanohano ia lā

We laud you, Royal Hawaiian Hotel
Your name is a grand one

Mary Pūla'a Robins wrote this song for the grand opening of the Royal Hawaiian Hotel in 1927.
