Aia 'o Kalani i Maleka

Traditional

I ke ku'ikahi pana'i like, pana'i like, pana'i like

The King has gone to America
To seek a reciprocity treaty

B

I ola nou a'e Hawai'i

To give life to you, O Hawai'i
For this time of increasing the population

No ke au ho'oulu lāhui, lāhui, lāhui

The idea has entered the mind to have Hawai'i and America join hands

C

Ke ui a'e nei ka mana'o

That you may continue with your sacred duties
In the beautiful surroundings of the palace

E hui Hawai'i me Maleka

David is a great ruler
He is occupying the throne

This is the end of praise, let all hear
The name of King David

I mau 'oe i ka 'ihikapu

Soon after ascending Hawai'i's throne in 1874, King David Kalākaua traveled to the United States to establish reciprocity for Hawai'i

I ka wehiwehi o hale ali'i, hale ali'i, hale ali'i
