Aloha Ku'u Home Kāne'ohe

^C Aloha ku'u home a i ^{C7} Kāne'ohe
^{G7} A me nā pali hāuliuli o nā ^C Ko'olau

Beloved is my home in Kāne'ohe
And the green cliffs of the Ko'olau mountains

^C Noho aku i ka la'i o ku'u home
^{G7} 'Upu a'e ka mana'o no nā ^C hoaloha

Staying in the peacefulness of my home
Brings up thoughts of dear friends

^C I laila mākou i hi'olani ai
^{G7} A me ka wai noenoe e pipi'i ana ^C

It is there that we found such pleasure
With the misty waters bubbling up

^C Ho'okahi ka mana'o i kualono
^{G7} A me ka leo aloha e ho'okipa mai ^C

One thought of those lofty mountains
And the voice of hospitality beckons

^C Ha'ina 'ia mai ana ku'u home
^{G7} A me nā pali hāuliuli o nā ^C Ko'olau

Tell the refrain of my home
And the green cliffs of the Ko'olau range

Also known as Ku'u Home O Nā Pali Hāuliuli, Louisa Hopkins composed this tribute to her home, Halekou, in 1939. The phrase "a i Kāne'ohe" is short for "aia i Kāne'ohe," a form often seen in songs.
