

Capo

Aloha Kaua'i

^G Aloha mokihana, ^{A7} pua o ^{D7} Kaua'i ^G

^{A7} Wili 'ia me ka ^{D7} maile lau ^G li'ili'i

^C Maile li'ili'i ^{D7}

^G He u'i, ^{A7} onaona, ^{D7} he aloha ^G wau ia 'oe ^G

^{A7} Me a'u, ^{D7} me 'oe i ka ^G pu'uwai ^{G7}

Beloved is the mokihana, flower of Kaua'i
Entwined with the dainty-leaved maile
Maile so dainty
A fragrant loveliness, I love you
Be close to my heart

^C Aloha nō 'o ^{Cm} Kaua'i ^G ^{E7}

^{A7} Luana, ^{D7} ho'okipa malihini

^G Puana, ^{A7} kaulana ka ^{D7} inoa o ^G Kaua'i

^{A7} Ha'aheo ^{D7} he nani ^G hiwahiwa ^{E7}

^{A7} Kaua'i ^{D7} he nani ^G nō 'oe

Beloved indeed is Kaua'i
And the home, Luana, so welcoming to visitors
The story is told of the fame of the name Kaua'i
Proud, a cherished beauty
Kaua'i you are beautiful indeed

Ma'iki Aiu wrote this for the Malina family and their home, Luana, with the help of Lei de Fries, Claude and Kia Malina. The mokihana berry and maile lau li'i are twined together to make a fragrant lei symbolic of Kaua'i. 1950s.