

G

Am D7

For You a Lei

^C It is time to say goodbye, dear
^{G7} ^C ^{Ab}
^{G7} Dry your tears and don't you cry
^{A7} ^{Dm}
 Just one more embrace and a fond adieu
^{D7} ^{G7}
 And here's a lei I brought for you

^C ^{G7} ^C
 For you a lei of flowers rare
^{G7} ^C
 For you a lei to hold and wear
^{A7} ^{D7}
 For you a lei to caress while you are away
^F ^{G7}
 Throw your troubles away make you happy and gay

^C
 A lei of love I give to you
^{C7} ^F
 To think of me when you are blue
^{Ab} ^C ^{A7}
 Where ever you may be, over land or on the sea
^{D7} ^{G7} ^C
 For you a lei to remember me

Composer Johnny Noble was also a collector of traditional and contemporary Hawaiian songs, which he published along with his own songs in several books of collected work, ensuring that these songs were passed on to us. 1929.