

check the timing

Hale'iwa Pāka

^{C / 4} Hanohano wale 'oe e Hale'iwa Pāka
^{G7 / 10} 'Ohu'ohu i ka popohe a ka pua hau

You are truly glorious, Hale'iwa Park
 Adorned with the full bloom of hau blossoms

^C 'O ka luli mālie a ka lau o ka niu
^{G7} I ke aheahe 'olu a ka makani kolonahe

The gentle swaying of the coconut leaves
 In the comforting touch of the gentle breeze

^C Laukanaka mau 'oe i ka lehulehu
^{G7} E kipa mau ana e 'ike i kou nani

You are always filled with people
 Who come often to see your beauty

^C Ka 'oē a ke kai i ka 'ae kai
^{G7} E kono mai ana e luana iki kāua

The murmur of the ocean at the shoreline
 Invites you and I to relax awhile

^{C / 4} Ua ana ka 'ikena i kou nani
^{G7} Hanohano mau 'oe e Hale'iwa Pāka

The sight of your beauty is fulfilling
 You, Hale'iwa Park, are ever glorious

All the senses are engaged in this lyrical description of Hale'iwa Park by Alice K. Nāmakelua.