

Tuesday 7PM Makua

This is he'eia for Kalakaua's surfing spot, but it came from Kamehameha Big Island Waimea.

4

my chant

He'eia

Traditional: This is a song written for He'eia in South Kona on the island of Hawai'i, near Keauhou on the Kona coast. It was a favorite canoe and surfing spot of King Kalākaua. However, the song was sung when the King was traveling on the windward side of O'ahu at the place called He'eia.

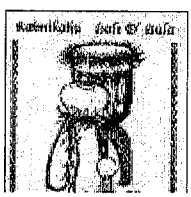

pa

2 lele uwehe 1 Kaholo / lele uwehe	UUKUUK, UKUUK Aia i He'eia la I ka nalu e he'e ana	There at He'eia The waves rolled in kawelu kawelu	UUKUUKUUKUUKUUK He'e ana i ka lala la E Ho'i ana i ka muku	Surfing toward the right Returning to the left
kawelu ele uwehe waiwai kii	UUKUUKUUKUUK A na'u i kikaha la A 'oia a'e kai	It was I who rode In on the sea's edge
lele uwehe ami	UUKUUKUUKUUK A he kuhihewa ko'u la Aia i ka poli	I thought that she Was here in my arms
kawelu 2 lele uwehe	UUKUUKUUKUUKUUK Ha'ina mai ka puana la 'O Hālala i ka nuku manu	Tell the refrain To Hālala i ka nuku manu
kahaas	He inoa nō Kalani Kāwika Kalākaua	In honor of Majesty David Kalākaua

lx pa

20x ho'o kii UUKUUK

U
KKU

Kaimikahu Hale O Hula

These chants were either handed down to us from the ancients or shared with us by friends. They are specifically for hula. Use of these chants outside of their intended function would be considered culturally inappropriate. Please respect the composer of these chants and the intent for which these chants were written. June 2004