^{F 1/4} ^{G7} ^{C7} ^F ^{C7}
Mō'i puni ha'akei

Famous is my home throughout Waipi'o
And to the beautiful borders of the land
A castle, an abode of chiefs
Herod is my peer
The king who loved glory

^F ^{F7} ^{Bb}
Kukuna o ka lā ko'u kapa ia

^{Bb m} ^F
E 'ōlino nei a puni ka honua

^{G7 1/4}

^{C7 1/4}
Lihi launa 'ole mai

^F
Nā ali'i nui o ke ao

The rays of the sun are my clothing
Glittering brilliantly around the earth
Oh, way up there above
Completely incomparable
Are the great chiefs of the world

^{C7}
Ko'iawe maila i luna

^F
Ko'iawe mau i nā pali

Oh my multitude of friends
And you, the natives of this land
Along with the waterfall of Hi'ilawe
Gossamer cascade on high
Ever sparkling upon the cliffs

^F ^{Bb}
'A'ole pēlā ka 'oia'i'o

^F
Haku'epa loko'ino a ka makamaka

^{G7}
Ua like nō a like

^{C7}
Me nā kini lehulehu

^F
A'o ku'u one hānau

That is not at all true
The malicious gossip of one's familiars
I am just the same
As the vast multitudes
Of my homeland

^F E ola māua me a'ū kini ^{Bb}

Me a'ū lei o nei 'āina ^F

Pulupē i ka hunakai ^{G7}

Ka i'a mili i ka lima ^{C7}

Pause Heha Waipi'o i ka noe ^F

^F Ha'ina 'ia mai ana ka puana ^{Bb}

No ka lei hapa pua Sepania ^F

He kupa no ka 'āina ^{G7}

E kipa mai ma loko ^{C7}

Hale'iwa beautiful home ^F

We both will live on, as will my people
And my dear lei of this land
Thoroughly drenched in sea spray
That fish caressed by hand
Sultry is Waipi'o in the mist

The refrain is told
Of the half-Spanish flower lei
A native of the land
Do come and visit
Hale'iwa, beautiful home

Said to have been written by Sam Li'a Kalāinaina Jr. & M. Smith about a home in Waipi'o, the size of which caused a stir in the district and gossip about snobbery. The song begins as a parody of self-aggrandizement and then dismisses the concerns, lauding the owner's hospitality and welcoming all. The phrase "a i luna" is a shorthand form of "aia i luna."
