Hawai'i:

Witnessing again the beauty of Hilo
 Amid the flourishing growth of the lehua
 The lei that charms visitors
 All becomes naught as love beckons

Maui:

There's no other that can compare
 Unmatched splendor
 So delightful, Haleakalā
 And Maui indeed is the best

O'ahu:

Beloved is O'ahu, adorned with 'ilima
 Like an 'ō'ō bird, of golden feather

Kaua'i:

Fine indeed is Kaua'i
 Flawless in the calm
 Beautiful mountain, Wai'ale'ale
 Adorned with a lei of mokihana

Moloka'i:

So alike, so very like
 The land of my birth
 The finest at the heart of mountains
 Like Great Moloka'i, child of Hina
 Land of beauty and verdure
 I shall return to stay

Hui are plucked from five different songs, each one lauding one of the islands, and strung together in a lei of loving pride for all of Hawai'i's lands.
