

Ka Beauty A'o Mānoa

Nani wale ke 'ike i kakahiaka lā
 Ke kuahiwi o Mānoa

Beautiful to behold in the morning
 The uplands of Mānoa
 With a gentle mist
 Quenching the land
 I am drenched with awe

Ke noenoe mai nei
 Ho'opulu ana i ke one

Pulu pē i ka 'ilihia

He beauty i ka ua Tuahine o Mānoa

A beauty is the Tuahine rain of Mānoa
 Engulfed in the breeze
 Bringing the sweet scent of the laua'e
 And the fragrance of the flowers
 Elegance in the forest

Pā aheahe ka makani

I ke 'ala o ka laua'e

Ke onaona o nā pua

Māhiehie i ka wao

I ka waokele i pali uliuli lā

In the forest and on the lush green cliffs
 Sweetly kissed by the Puakea rain
 One can drink 'til satisfied
 To the hilt of pleasure
 Ah! Such a good idea!

Honehone i ka Puakea

Ke pā wai a inu a kena

Heha i ka ho'oluliluli

He mana'o pono kēia

Puana e ka u'i i ka uka o Mānoa

So shall the uplands of Mānoa
 Remain beautiful in the morning
 Drenched in awe
 The land is quenched
 Here we shall be together
 In the beauty of Mānoa

I ka 'ehy kakahiaka

Pulu pē i ka 'ilihia

Ho'opulu ana i ke one

Ke pili mai i 'ane'i

Ka beauty a'o Mānoa
