

Ka 'Ano'i

<sup>G</sup>
Aia i Alaka'i ka <sup>D7</sup>'ano'i
<sup>G</sup>
Nā pua keu a ke aloha

There at Alaka'i is the desirable one
The flowers overjoyed with love

<sup>G</sup>
Ke aloha ka i hiki <sup>D7</sup>mau loa
<sup>G</sup>
No'u a no iala kekahi

Love is forever forthcoming
For me, and for that one too

<sup>G</sup>
'O iala ka pua i poni <sup>D7</sup>'ia
<sup>G</sup>
I kukuni pa'a 'ia ka 'i'ini

She's the blossom that is anointed
Desire is branded permanently

<sup>G</sup>
He 'i'ini kau nō ka <sup>D7</sup>mana'o
<sup>G</sup>
'O hali'a hana mau i ke kino

Wanting takes over my thoughts
Good memories endlessly run through my being

<sup>G</sup>
Ku'u kino ua lono i ka <sup>D7</sup>leo
<sup>G</sup>
I ke kani a nā manu o uka

My person is attentive to the voices
That are sounded by the birds of the upland

<sup>G</sup>
'Ane'ane hiki mai <sup>D7</sup>'o Uila
<sup>G</sup>
Ke āiwaiwa o luna

Uila soon will be arriving
The amazing one of the heights

<sup>G</sup>
Nāna e kaomi nā <sup>D7</sup>mano
<sup>G</sup>
Hakuko'i ka wai i nā pali

It was she who will dam up the springs and wells
Water shall rush over the cliffs

<sup>G</sup>
Ha'ina 'ia mai ka <sup>D7</sup>puana
<sup>G</sup>
Nā pua keu a ke aloha

The story is told
About the flowers overjoyed with love

This song by Kamealoha was published in Holstein's Ka Buke Mele o nā Himeni Hawai'i in 1897.