Ka wai kaulana o NāmoloKama

You are so famous
O waters of NāmoloKama
Splashing and splashing
Rumbling on the cliffs
Making a merry sound
In the mountainous beauty
You are indeed precious
A favorite one
You are majestic
Placed on high
There you will be with me
The famous waters of NāmoloKama

Alfred U. 'Alohikea describes NāmoloKama, the majestic mountain which defines the back of Hanalei valley and gives name to the waterfall that scores it. 1920s.
