

Kaleponi

^G
 Hele au i Kaleponi
^{G7}
 Ho'i mai male kāua
^C ^G
 A he aha kou makemake
^{D7} ^G
 A pane maila 'o iala
^{D7} ^G
 Pāpale ipu kapakahi
^{D7} ^G
 Kāma'a hila lauli'i
^{D7} ^G
 Kīhei su'u weluwelu
^{D7} ^G
 Pelekoki hapa nihoniho
^{D7} ^G
 Me ka lole mū'ekeke'i

^G
 I'm going to California
^{G7}
 When I come back we'll be married
^C ^G
 What would you like me to bring you?
^{D7} ^G
 And she answered shyly
^{D7} ^G
 A hat with a crooked crown
^{D7} ^G
 A pair of high heel shoes
^{D7} ^G
 A shawl with some fringe
^{D7} ^G
 A petticoat with half scallops
^{D7} ^G
 And a tight short dress

Both the Hawaiian and English lyrics are intended to be sung in this perky song by Bina Mossman. 1935.
