

110 BPM

120

He Mele
Aloha

G

Ke 'Ala O Ka Rose

G/8 D7/4 G/4 G7/2

Ke 'ala o ka rose ua hā pā mai
^{C/4} ^{G/2} ^{D7/4} ^{G/4} D7 G
 Ka maile lauli'i o ke kuahiwi

The perfume of the rose comes to me
 The delicate leaved maile of the mountain

^G ^{D7} ^G ^{G7}
 Ka hala o kai, maile a'o ūka
^C ^G ^{D7} ^G D7 G
 Kui a'e kāua a lawa ku'u lei

Pandanus from the shore, maile from the heights
 Let us combine them, and my lei is done

^G ^{D7} ^G ^{G7}
 Mea 'ole ē ke kula me ke kaimana
^C ^G ^{D7} ^G D7 G
 Ke kumu manako ho'oluliluli

Gold and diamonds are not important to me
 The mango tree, bending to the breeze, is

^G ^{D7} ^G ^{G7}
 Hāwele pono iho i ke kaula 'ili
^C ^G ^{D7} ^G D7 G
 Makū'u o ka noho 'Italia

Properly secure the reins
 On the pummel of the Italian saddle

^G ^{D7} ^G ^{G7}
 Ua kani ē ka pio, hone i ke kula
^C ^G ^{D7} ^G D7 G
 Mana'o iho oe, 'o wau ia

A whistle sounds, sweet on the plains
 And you think that it's me

^G ^{D7} ^G ^{G7}
 Ha'ina 'ia mai ana ka puana
^C ^G ^{D7} ^G D7 G E7
 Ke 'ala o ka rose, ua hā pā mai

Tell the story in the refrain
 The perfume of the rose comes to me

^A ^D ^{E7} ^A ^{A7}
^D ^A ^{E7} ^A ^{A7}

Danny Kū'ōpio, from the island of Ni'ihau, composed this in 1932, at age of 17, when he was courting a beauty named Loke.

end B7 E7 A