

Kilakila 'O Haleakalā

<sup>C</sup>
Kauhale o Ka'ao'ao
<sup>G7</sup>
'Ike aku iā Kilohana
Kāua i ke one he'ehe'e
Me nā alanui kīke'eke'e

Ka'ao'ao is our home
That looks upon Kilohana
You and I on the sliding sands
And zigzagging pathways

<sup>C</sup>
Kau ana lā kau ana
<sup>G7</sup>
Kau ana ko ia ala maka
'O ua lio holo peki!
<sup>C</sup>
Mea 'ole ko ia ala holo!

Settling there, settling there
That one's gaze is fixed
Oh, that prancing horse!
Its gait is of no importance

<sup>C</sup>
Kilakila 'o Haleakalā
<sup>G7</sup>
Kuahiwi nani o Maui
Ha'aheo 'oe Hawai'i
<sup>C</sup>
Hanohano 'o Maui nō ka 'oi

chorus:
Majestic Haleakalā
Beautiful mountain of Maui
Prized by you, Hawai'i
Glorious Maui is the very best.

This song appears to be of mixed origins, the second stanza being from the 1870 song Kau Ana, the hui may be by Charles E. King. The stanzas are often sung slowly, the hui quite fast.
