

Kinuē

^C Hanohano Pauahi i ka uhiwai
^{A7} ^{D7} ^{G7} ^C ^{C7}
 Me ka ua kilihune o ke kuahiwi
^F ^{C7} ^F
 Hone ana ē ka leo o ke kelepona
^C ^{G7} ^C
 E kono mai ana ia'u e kipa aku

Glorious Pauahi in the mist
 And fine rain of the mountain
 Sweet soft voice on the telephone
 Inviting me to visit

^C ^F ^C
 Launa pū me nā hoa aloha
^{A7} ^{D7} ^{G7} ^C ^{C7}
 Ia home ho'okipa pumehana
^F ^{C7} ^F
 Ho'ohihi nā manu i ka la'i
^C ^{G7} ^C
 Ho'ola'i nā malihini i ka nani

Enjoying together with dear friends
 The warm hospitality of this home
 The birds are lured by the quiet calm
 The guests content in beautiful surroundings

^C ^F ^C
 E ake ana e 'ike iā Papaloa
^{A7} ^{D7} ^{G7} ^C ^{C7}
 A he loa, a he loa mai ho'i kau
^F ^{C7} ^F
 Ia home kaulana o ia uka
^C ^{G7} ^C
 Moani ana ke 'ala o nā pua

Longing to see Papaloa
 So far away, so distant
 This home well known in these uplands
 Wafting sweet fragrance of the flowers

^C ^F ^C
 Mea 'ole ke alanui kīke'eke'e
^{A7} ^{D7} ^{G7} ^C ^{C7}
 I ka holu mālie ho'i a ka jeep
^F ^{C7} ^F
 Hea aku nō au, o mai 'oukou
^C ^{G7} ^C
 Nā pua lei aloha a Kinuē

The crooked road is as nothing
 To the easy swaying of the jeep
 I call, you answer
 Beloved children of Kinuē

Written by Lilinoe Wall for Henry Nicholas Greenwell of Kona, known as Kinuē, and put to music by Helen Desha Beamer. 1948. Translation by Mahi'ai Beamer.