

G7 C7 F

Kīpū Kai

^F No Kīpū Kai ^{C7} ke aloha

Home i ka pili kahakai ^F

^{F7} I laila ^{Bb} au e ^{G7} 'ike ai

^{C7} I ka nui ^F lokomaika'i

^F Pau 'ole ko'u ho'ohihi ^{C7}

I ka nani a'o Hā'upu ^F

^{F7} Mauna ^{Bb} ki'eki'e ^{G7} i luna

^{C7} Hanohano ^F ke 'ike aku

^F Nanea i ka ho'olohe ^{C7}

I ka halulu mai o ke kai ^F

^{F7} Ka nalu ^{Bb} nui e ^{G7} holu ana

^{C7} I ka lae a'o Kuahonu ^F

^F Makemake wale ka 'ikena ^{C7}

I nā manu pīkake nani ^F

^{F7} E kaka'i ^{Bb} e ha'aheo ^{G7} ana

^{C7} I ka malu a'o ke kiawe ^F

^F Puana 'ia me ke aloha ^{C7}

No ka nani a'o Hā'upu ^F

^{F7} Me Keaka ^{Bb} lokomaika'i ^{G7}

^{C7} Ka haku a'o Kīpū Kai ^F

For Kīpū Kai is my affection
Where there's a home at the water's edge
It was there I found
Such unbounded hospitality

Endless is my admiration
For the beauty of Hā'upu
A hill so high above
Majestic to my sight

I enjoy listening quietly
To the roar of the sea
As large waves come rushing in
To Kuahonu Point

It is delightful to see
The pretty peacocks
Strutting by together
In the shade of the kiawe trees

Thus ends my song with affection
For the beauty of Hā'upu
And to Jack the kind-hearted
The owner of Kīpū Kai

Composed in the 1950s by Mary Kawena Pukui and Maddy K. Lam for Jack Waterhouse and his Kīpū Kai Ranch on Kaua'i. Hā'upu, a ridge on Kaua'i that separates Kīpū Kai from the main part of the island, is dominated by a peak of the same name. Hā'upu, also called Hoary Head, is a wahi pana of great significance to Hawaiians, as its peak can be used as a predictor of weather for the surrounding area. Translation by Mary Kawena Pukui.