

Kō'ula

<sup>F/2 C7 /2 F/2 D7/2 G7 /8</sup>
Nani wale ē ka ua a'o Kō'ula

<sup>C7 /10 F/A</sup>
Kilihune nei i ka ua li'ili'i vamp

How beautiful is the rain of Kō'ula
Showering down in misty droplets

<sup>F/2 C7/2 F/2 D7/2 G7/8</sup>
'O ka pi'o ana mai o ke ānuenuē

<sup>C7/10 F/4</sup>
Ho'oheno ana i ka lau lā'au

The arching of the rainbow above
Caresses the leaves of the trees

<sup>F/2 C7/2 F/2 D7/2 G7/8</sup>
Kaulana manowai, wai a'o Puna

<sup>C7/10 F/4</sup>
Ke kumu o ka wai a'o Manuahi

Famous this spring, the water of Puna
The source of the waters of Manuahi

<sup>F C7 F D7 G7</sup>
Kūmaka ka 'ikena i ia wai lewa

<sup>C7 F</sup>
Ko'iaweawe i ka welelau pali

All eyes gaze at this water on high
Spraying and dancing over the cliffs

<sup>F C7 F D7 G7</sup>
E ola ka 'ōpua kū kilakila

<sup>C7 F</sup>
Ma ke kihi o ke ao a'o Mālama

Cottony clouds rise majestically
At the beginning of daylight in Mālama

<sup>F C7 F D7 G7</sup>
Ha'ina ka inoa pōina 'ole

<sup>C7 F</sup>
Kaulana nā manowai o Puna

Told is the unforgettable name
Renowned are the great springs of Puna

This song by Alvin Isaacs, Sr. was originally entitled Manowaiopuna. It honors the waters that grace the Puna district of Kaua'i.
