

Lanakila Kawaihau

F C7 B- F
 Ke lei nei ko lei nani
 C7 B- F
 A ke onaona e hea mai nei
 C7 B- F
 Walea ana i ka inu wai
 D7 G7 C7 F
 A he 'ai ha'aheo no Kawaihau

Your beautiful lei adorns you
 Whose sweetness beckons
 Delighting in a sip of water
 And it's a proud win for Kawaihau

C7 F
 Inu i ka wai māpuna
 C7 F
 Ha'aheo i ko lei lehua
 C7 F
 A he leo no pūpū kani oe
 F7 Bb G7 C7 F
 Ua lanakila 'o Kawaihau

chorus:
 Drink of the spring water
 Proud in your lehua lei
 Land shells trill the refrain
 Kawaihau is victorious

F C7 B- F
 Nohenohea ia mau pua
 C7 B- F
 A he kumu o ke 'ala
 C7 B- F
 A na'u na ke onaona
 D7 G7 C7 F
 I ho'okani ke kaula kia

Those blossoms are so handsome
 And a source of sweet perfume
 And it was I, the charming one
 Who made the reins sing

Mekia Kealaka'i was noted for being able to compose extemporaneously. He wrote this song on the spot to celebrate the political victory of Colonel Samuel Parker and Prince Jonah Kūhiō Kalaniana'ole. 1903.
