

Maui Girl

<sup>A</sup> I love a <sup>D</sup> pretty <sup>A</sup> Maui Girl
<sup>A7</sup> She lives at <sup>D</sup> Waikapū
<sup>E7</sup> With rosy cheeks and pearly teeth
<sup>A</sup> And lovely nut <sup>E7</sup> brown hair
<sup>A</sup> Her waist is oh so slender
<sup>A7</sup> Her 'ōpū too much <sup>D</sup> nuinui
<sup>E7</sup> Of all the wahine I ever did aloha
<sup>A</sup> Sweet Mariah beats them all

<sup>A</sup> My love for you, <sup>E7</sup> ua hiki aku nō
<sup>A</sup> Your love for me, ua pēlā nō
<sup>A7</sup> Don't tell Māmā, a kulikuli
<sup>D</sup> She'll tell Pāpā, <sup>B7</sup> a luliluli
<sup>E7</sup> Nuinui pilikia with me <sup>A</sup> now

Who would have thought that this modern sounding hapa-haole song by Sylvester Thomas Kalama was published in 1892!