

May Day Is Lei Day in Hawai'i

^F May day is Lei Day in Hawai'i ^{C7}
 Garlands of flowers everywhere ^F
 Oh, all of the colors in the rainbow ^{A7} ^{D7} ^{G7}
 Maidens with blossoms in their hair ^{C7}
 Flowers that mean we should be happy ^F ^{C7}
 Throwing aside our load of care ^F
 Oh, May Day is Lei Day in Hawai'i ^{A7} ^{D7} ^{G7}
 Lei Day is happy day out here ^{C7} ^F

Composed by Leonard "Red" Hawk. 1928.

Me Moloka'i

^C Ka mana'ō nō ia e ka 'upu 'ana a'e ^{FC} ^{G7}
 Nā hono a'ō Pi'ilani kū kilakila ^C
 'O ka 'oi nō na'e ku'u one hānau ^F ^C ^F
 Me Moloka'i nui 'āina uluwehi ^C ^{G7}
 'O ka heke nō ia ^C

chorus:

It is the thought
 Welling up within
 The bays of Pi'ilani
 Standing majestically
 The best, however
 Is my birth place
 Great Moloka'i
 Verdant land
 It is unsurpassed

The hui is the only portion to be found of this song composed by Ida Hanakahi, originally known as Ka Mana'ō Nō Ia.
