

Miloli'i

<sup>C</sup> <sup>A7</sup> <sup>D7</sup>
Miloli'i aku nei au lā
<sup>C</sup>
I ke kau 'ēkake lā
<sup>G7</sup> <sup>C</sup>
Nuha i ke alanui

I've been to Miloli'i
Riding a donkey
So stubborn on the road

<sup>C</sup> <sup>A7</sup> <sup>D7</sup>
Waikīkī aku nei au lā
<sup>C</sup>
I ke kau 'elepani lā
<sup>G7</sup> <sup>C</sup>
Ihu peleleu

I've been to Waikīkī
Mounted on an elephant
With a very long trunk

<sup>C</sup> <sup>A7</sup> <sup>D7</sup>
Calafrisco aku nei au lā
<sup>C</sup>
I ke kau mokulele lā
<sup>G7</sup> <sup>C</sup>
A lewa i ka lewa

I've been to San Francisco
On board an airplane
Flying in the sky

<sup>C</sup> <sup>A7</sup> <sup>D7</sup>
Ha'ina mai ka puana lā
<sup>C</sup>
I ke kau 'ēkake lā
<sup>G7</sup> <sup>C</sup>
Nuha i ke alanui

Tell the story
About being up on a donkey
So stubborn on the road

This is a fun dance for the kāne by, appropriately enough, Makuakāne. Sometimes a newer fourth verse is added in: Honolulu aku nei au lā, I ke kau steam a rola lā, Holo i ke alanui — I was just in Honolulu, riding on a steamroller that cruised the streets.
