

My Hawaiian Souvenirs

^C
 A photograph, a calabash, a paper lei ^C
^{Gb-} ^{G7}
 Are my Hawaiian souvenirs
 Each token brings back memories all thru the day
^C
 And may they last for many years

^{A7} ^{Dm}
 When I am old and gray
^{D7} ^{G7}
 I'll have the pleasure to say to you
^C ^{Am} ^{A7}
 A photograph, a calabash, a paper lei
^F ^{G7} ^C
 Are my Hawaiian souvenirs

This plaintive song from the 1930s by Johnny Noble is typical of the hapa-haole genre in that it is musically more complex and poetically less so than most Hawaiian songs.
