

My Little Grass Shack in Kealakekua, Hawai'i

I want to go

^GBack to my little grass shack in Kealakekua, Hawai'i

I want to be with all the kāne and wāhine that I knew long ago

I can hear old guitars a'playing on the beach at Hōnaunau

I can hear the old Hawaiians saying —

“E komo mai nō kāua i ka hale wela ka hao”

It won't be long 'til my ship will be sailing back to Kona

A grand old place that's always fair to see

I'm just a little Hawaiian and a homesick island boy

I want to go back to my fish and poi

I want to go back to my little grass shack in Kealakekua, Hawai'i

Another favorite at the Kodak Hula Show, this was composed by Bill Cogswell, Tommy Harrison and Johnny Noble in 1933. The Hawaiian line means “let's you and I go in the house while the time is right.”
