My Sweet Sweeting

Ku'u 'ohu lei ānuenuē^{A E7}
 Ko'iaweawe nei i ke pili^A
 'O ka pai a ka makani Kiu^{E7}
 Ka 'iniki 'ana iho welawela^{A A7}

My adornment a rainbow lei
 Lies spreading over the pili grass
 When lifted by the Kiu wind
 One feels a sharp pinch

Ho'i mai kāua e pili^{D A}
 My sweet sweeting^{E7 A A7}
 'A'ohē pili hemo 'ole i ke kau^{D A}
 My sweet sweeting^{E7 A}

chorus:
 Come let us be together
 My sweet sweeting
 For no tie can last forever
 My sweet sweeting

Ko 'awihi 'ana ka'u i 'upu ai^{A E7}
 'O ko leo nahe a pa'ē mai^A
 I ho'ohenoheno iho ai au^{E7}
 I ke ala o pi'i ka manene^A A7

Your wink I fondly recall
 Your sweet voice has been heard
 It makes me love so dearly
 This pathway to the shudders of delight

This love song by J.K. Namō'olau and Kalani Peters from 1908 has a timeless quality.
