

Nāmolokama Lā

<sup>C</sup>
Kipa aku ana ke aloha

<sup>F</sup> I ka hale kama<sup>D7</sup>‘āina

<sup>G7</sup>
‘Ike ana i ka hau anu

<sup>C</sup>
Kolonahe ‘olu i ka la‘i

Ua la‘i malu kāua

<sup>F</sup> Ka nohona i ke konakona<sup>D7</sup>

<sup>G7</sup>
‘Ike ana i ka pu‘eone

<sup>C</sup>
Pua rose a‘o nā moku

Love has made a visit
To the familiar home
We experience the cold chill
The gentle breeze feels nice in the quiet
We are both pleasantly contented
As we remain close together
Seeing the sand bars
Pua Rose and the islets

<sup>C</sup>
Aia i ka luna lā Nāmolokama lā

<sup>F</sup> Pumehana ho‘i kāua<sup>D7</sup>

<sup>G7</sup>
Kiani ana i ka lau o ka maile

<sup>C</sup>
‘Oni ana nō i ke kuahiwi lā

<sup>F</sup> ‘Ohu‘ohu ho‘i kāua<sup>D7</sup>

<sup>G7</sup> I ka ua nui kaulana o Hanalei<sup>C</sup>

chorus:

There above is Nāmolokama
You and I share our warmth
In the gentle movement through the maile leaves
Moving toward the mountain
You and I are bedecked
By the famous heavy rain of Hanalei

Alfred U. ‘Alohikea and Hanalei are forever linked together in people’s minds by his mele pana for this beautiful place. 1928.
