

Pāpālina Lahilahi

^C ^F ^C
 He aloha wau iā 'oe lā
^{G7} ^C ^{C7}
 Kou pāpālina lahilahi
^F ^C
 I ka ho'opulu mau 'ia lā
^{G7} ^C
 I ka hunehune o ke kai

I love you
 Your dainty cheeks
 Always moistened
 From sea spray

^C ^F ^C
 He aha nō ho'i kāu lā
^{G7} ^C ^{C7}
 'O ke alawiki 'ana mai?
^F ^C
 Ua 'ike iho nō 'oe lā
^{G7} ^C
 A he pua 'oe ua 'ako 'ia

What indeed is the reason
 For hurrying this way?
 You've seen for yourself
 You're a blossom already plucked

^C ^F ^C
 Hā'awi hemolele 'ia lā
^{G7} ^C ^{C7}
 Mai ke po'o a ka hi'u
^F ^C
 He aha nō ho'i kāu la
^{G7} ^C
 'O ka pūlalelale 'ana mai?

Freely given
 From head to toe
 What, then, is the reason
 For this hurry to possess?

^C ^F ^C
 Ha'ina mai ka puana lā
^{G7} ^C ^{C7}
 Kou pāpālina lahilahi
^F ^C
 Ha'ina hou ka puana lā
^{G7} ^C
 He aloha wau iā 'oe

The story is told
 Of your dainty cheeks
 And it's told again
 That I love you

Attributed to Alice Johnson who asks, "What's the rush? Once love is in the works the relationship can unfold at our leisure."
