This was Irmgard Farden Aluli's first hit, composed in 1937, and telling of the Farden family home in Lahaina. An English version was later written and recorded as the popular Sea Breeze by Genoa Keawe. Irmgard Aluli was 65 years old when, in 1978, she started playing music with her two daughters, Mihana and Neaulani, and later her niece, Luanna and her third daughter 'Ā'ima. The elegant and popular group sang every weekend for the next 20-plus years. Translation by Carol Silva.
