

Pūpū O 'Ewa

^GNani Ka'ala hemolele i ka ^{D7}mālie
^{D7}Kuahiwi kaulana a'o ^G'Ewa
^GE ki'i ana i ka ^{G7}makani o ka ^C'āina
^{D7}Hea ka Moa'e, "Eia au e ke ^Galoha"

Beautiful is Ka'ala, flawless in the calm
 Renowned mountain of the 'Ewa district
 Fetching the wind of the land
 The Moa'e wind beckons, "Here I am my love"

^GPūpū a'o 'Ewa
^{G7}I ka nu'a nā kānaka
^CE naue mai a e 'ike
^{D7}I ka mea hou o ka 'āina
^GA he 'āina ua ^{G7}kaulana
^CMai nā kūpuna mai
^GAlahula Pu'uloa ke ala ^{D7}hele no Ka'ahupāhau
^{D7}Alahula Pu'uloa ke ala ^Ghele no Ka'ahupāhau

chorus:
 Shells of 'Ewa
 Amid throngs of people
 Hasten here and learn
 The news of the land
 A land renowned
 From the ancient ones
 Pu'uloa is a famous pathway
 The pathway for Ka'ahupāhau

Kawaihau Glee Club was said to have sung this song regularly. This song is also known as Ka'ahupāhau, who was the benevolent shark goddess of the loch Pu'uloa. The people of this area revered her, and she in turn took care of them while in these waters. 1870s.
