

Ua Like Nō A Like

^C ^{G7} ^F ^C
 Ua like nō a like
^{G7} ^C
 Me ka ua Kanilehua
^{G7} ^F ^C
 Me he ala e 'ī mai ana
^{G7} ^C
 Aia i laila ke aloha

So like, so very like
 The Kanilehua rain
 That seems to say
 There is the one to love

^C ^{G7} ^F ^C
 'O 'oe nō ka'u i 'upu ai
^{G7} ^C
 Ku'u lei i hiki ahiahi
^{C7} ^F ^{G7} ^C
 'O ke kani a nā manu
^{G7} ^C
 I nā hola o ke aumoe

chorus:
 You are the one that I think of
 My darling who comes at evening time
 Like the song of the birds
 Filling the late night hours

^C ^{G7} ^F ^C
 Ma 'ane'i mai kāua
^{G7} ^C
 He welina pa'a i ka piko
^{G7} ^F ^C
 A nāu nō wau e 'imi ana
^{G7} ^C
 A loa'a i ke aheahe a ka makani

Let us two draw together
 An intensity sealed deep within
 You've been searching for me
 And found me in the whispering breeze

Alice Everett compares love to the cherished attributes of Hilo, its rain, birds and flowers. 1882.
