

Uluwehi 'O Ka'ala

^C Uluwehi ka luna o Ka'ala
^{Am} Kāhiko 'ia maila e ka ^C 'ohu
^{Am} 'Alawa ku'u maka i luna ^G
^{D7} Ka pi'o a ke ānuenuē ^{G7}
^C 'Alawa ku'u maka i lalo ^E
^F Ka hulali a ka wai li'ulā ^C ^{A7}
^{D7} 'Auana i ke kula o Leilehua ^C
^{D7} Me ka ipo honehone o ke aumoe ^C

The heights of Ka'ala are verdant
 Adorned by the sweeping mists
 My eyes glance upward
 To behold the arching rainbow
 My eyes glance downward
 To the sparkling waters in twilight
 Wandering the plains of Leilehua
 With the gentle sweetheart of midnight

^C Pā mai ka makani he Moa'e ^{D7}
^{G7} Hō'ino'ino nei i ka mana'o ^C ^{G7}
^C I laila māua i pili ai ^{D7}
^{G7} Me ka ipo honehone o ke aumoe ^C

chorus:

The tradewind blows, the Moa'e
 Disturbing one's thoughts
 It's there that we two were together
 I and the gentle sweetheart of midnight

Kanihomau'ole celebrates the beauty of Mt. Ka'ala, which at 4,000 feet elevation, is the highest peak on O'ahu. 1916.
