

Waipi'o

^C 'O ^{F C A7} k̄au ^{D7} hana mau n̄o ia

^{G7} 'O ka ^{F C} ho'okipa i ke aloha

^{F C} A na'u i ho'oheno ^{C7 F} mua

^{A7 D7 G7 C} Ka makani 'o Laulani

You can always be counted on
To offer a loving welcome
I have long held dear
The Laulani breeze of that land

^C He inoa ^{F C} k̄eia no ^{C7 F} Waipi'o

^{G7} 'O ka ^{F C} Halelauokekoa

^{F C C7 F} I pu'a i ke 'ala

^{A7 D7 G7 C} Onaona i ka ihu

chorus:
This is a name song praising Waipi'o
And the house, Halelauokekoa
Filled with the fragrance of the flowers
So sweet and welcoming to behold

^C E ka i'a ^{F C A7} h̄amau ^{D7} leo

^{G7} E hi'ipoi ^{F C} mālie nei

^{F C C7 F} I ka mea k̄ameha'i

^{A7 D7 G7 C} O ua 'āina nei

The renowned pearl oysters
Do gently hold so dear
A thing of wondrous nature
Belonging to that land

Mekia Kealaka'i and George Allen praise the hospitality of Halelauokekoa in Waipi'o Valley, Hawaii. 1860. Translation from Kamehameha School pamphlet "Nā Haku Mele Kane."
